

Contents

Preface	xvii
Acknowledgments	xix
Introduction	1
Part I
THE PROFESSIONAL-PATIENT RELATIONSHIP AND THE QUALITY OF CARE
Chapter 1
Canterbury v. Spence
The Inadvertent Landmark Case	9
A. The Plaintiff — Jerry Canterbury	10
B. The Lawsuit and the Trial	14
1. The Attorney	14
2. The Theory of the Case	17
3. What Was He Told and When Was He Told It?	18
C. The Judge	19
D. The Opinion	21
E. The Retrial and Second Appeal	22
F. Conclusion	23
Chapter 2
Darling v. Charleston Community Memorial Hospital
A Broken Leg and Institutional Liability Unbound	27
A. Introduction: Downfall of the High School Quarterback	27
B. The Familiar Holding of the Case	29
C. The Events at Charleston Community Memorial Hospital	29
D. Follow-Up at Barnes Hospital and the Partial Amputation	31
E. Bringing in the Big Legal Guns and Filing the Lawsuit	32
F. The Trial	33
G. Reconsidering the Facts and the Jury's Verdict	37
H. What Really Was the Holding?	39
I. Reaction at the Time and Ongoing Impact of the Case	41
J. Other Observations About the Case	43
1. Medical Error as Systems Problem?	43
2. Reflecting the New Realities of Medical Care Delivery	43
3. Part of the General "Tort Revolution"	44

4. Limits to Institutional Liability?	44
5. The Imprecise Nature of Awarding Damages	45
K. Epilogue	46
Part II
DEATH AND DYING
Chapter 3
Quinlan and Cruzan
Beyond the Symbols	53
A. Youth and Family	55
B. The Catastrophic Events and the Early Decisions	56
C. Medical Diagnosis and Prognosis: PVS and “Sleeping Beauty”	58
D. Coming to a Decision	59
E. Trigger for Litigation	61
F. Media Force and Protests	63
G. The Courts Decide	64
H. Intellectual Leadership	66
1. Catholic Views	66
2. Medicine	68
I. Withdrawing Treatment	69
J. The Aftermath	70
K. Conclusion	71
Part III
REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS
Chapter 4
Johnson v. Calvert
Technology, Family, and Commerce	79
A. Introduction	79
B. The Setting	81
1. The Fertility Industry	81
2. Surrogacy	82
3. ART Use and the Law	84
C. Johnson v. Calvert : The Third-Party Actors	85
1. The Arrangers	85
2. The Lawyers	87
3. The Media	88
D. After Johnson v. Calvert	90
1. The UPA	90
2. Parentage Disputes Arising from ART Use	90
a. Traditional Surrogacy	91
b. Gestational Surrogacy with Third-Party Gametes	91
c. Two Mothers	92

3. The Fertility Industry	92
E. Epilogue	93
Chapter 5
Litowitz v. Litowitz
Feuding over Frozen Embryos and Forecasting the Future of Reproductive Medicine	97
A. The Marriage, The Divorce, The Lingering Dispute	98
1. The Surrogacy Process	99
2. The Egg Donor Arrangement	100
B. The Trial	103
C. The Court of Appeals Decision	105
D. The Supreme Court of Washington Decision	107
E. Lessons for Third-Party Reproduction	109
1. Unintended Consequences	109
2. Genetics vs. Intent in ART	109
3. Raw Ingredients and the Downstream Product	111
F. Lessons for Stem Cell Research	112
G. Conclusion	114
Part IV
ORGAN TRANSPLANTS, MEDICAL FUTILITY, AND PRESUMED CONSENT
Chapter 6
In re T.A.C.P. and In the Matter of Baby K.
Anencephaly and Slippery Slopes	123
A. Introduction	123
B. “Little Angel”: Teresa Ann Campo Pearson	124
C. The Background for an “Utter Lack of Consensus”	127
D. Futility Emerges	129
E. Every Breath You Take: Stephanie Keene	130
F. Post Mortems	135
G. Postludes to the Cases	136
1. Organs from Anencephalic Infants	137
2. Checking the Provision of Futile Care	138
3. People with Disabilities and Slippery Slopes	138
H. Conclusion	139
Chapter 7
Newman v. Sathyavaglswaran
Unbundling Property in the Dead	143
A. Introduction: Los Angeles Stories	144
1. Kenneth	144
2. Carlos	144
B. From the Grave	147

C. Public Health and Quasi Property Interests in Dead Bodies	149
D. Shifts and Trends Paving the Commons Law for Newman	151
1. The Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (1968)	151
2. Presumed Consent	152
E. Newman and Its Legacy	154
F. Closing Thoughts	156
Part V
PUBLIC HEALTH
Chapter 8
Jacobson v. Massachusetts
The Police Power and Civil Liberties in Tension	163
A. The 1901-1903 Smallpox Epidemic	164
B. Cambridge's Vaccination Order and Jacobson's Resistance	165
C. The Immunization Debates and Jacobson's Fourteen "Facts"	167
D. The Many Faces of Jacobson : Personal Freedom and the Common Good	172
1. Social Compact Theory: The Police Power and Public Health
Deference	172
2. Theory of Limited Government: Safeguarding Individual Liberty	173
E. Lochner v. New York : The Antithesis of Good Judicial Governance	174
F. Jacobson and Its Enduring Meaning	175
Part VI
REGULATORY, ORGANIZATIONAL, AND BUSINESS ISSUES
Chapter 9
United States v. Krizek
Rough Justice Under the Civil False Claims Act	187
A. Background of the Dispute	188
B. The Litigation	191
C. The Lessons Learned	197
1. Failures of Understanding: The Human Element	198
2. Failures to Communicate	201
3. Failures of Law	203
D. Conclusion	205
Chapter 10
Utah County v. Intermountain Health Care
Reconsidering the Charitable Status of Nonprofit Hospitals	211
A. Introduction	211
B. Forces Colliding: The Changing Face of the Nonprofit Hospital,
For-Profit Competition, and Local Revenue Needs	212
C. The Intermountain Litigation and Decision	214
D. Aftermath	220
E. Epilogue	221

Chapter 11
Estate of Gelsinger v. Trustees of University of Pennsylvania
Money, Prestige, and Conflicts of Interest in Human Subjects Research	229
A. Introduction	229
B. Jesse's Participation in the Clinical Trial	231
1. A Primer on Human Subjects Research and Its Regulation	233
2. State of "Gene Therapy" Before Jesse's Trial	234
3. The Decision to Test Relatively Healthy Adults	234
4. The Oversight of Gene-Therapy Trials	236
5. Disclosures Made to Jesse	236
6. Jesse's Death	238
C. A Preventable Death?	240
D. FDA Leaps into Action	242
E. Penn's Self-Examination	243
F. Penn's Review and Approval of Wilson's Deal	243
G. The Gelsingers Finally Sue	248
H. Every Conflict Is Not Alike	250
I. The Feds Settle	251
J. Post-Script	253
1. Batshaw, Raper, and Wilson	253
2. Paul Gelsinger	254
3. Human Subjects Research	254
Index	263